Samuel C. Zimmerman, of Lincoln, senior in the college of law, is a graduate of the Humboldt high school in the class of 1910. In 1910, representing Humboldt, he won first place in Richardson county high school debating contest. Three years—1908-10—he represented Humboldt in the southeastern district of the High School Debating league. In the University, he was a member of the sophomore and also the junior teams in the interclass championship debates.

Against Kansas, at Lawrence

Guy C. Chambers, of Sidney, senior in the college of law, was graduated from the Sidney high school in 1908. He represented Sidney in the northwestern district debates of the High School Debating league in 1908 and 1909, representing his school and the district in the first state debate of the league in 1908. He was a teacher in Cheyenne county in 1909-19, at Indianola in 1910-11 and was superintendent of the Chappel schools in 1911-13. He attended the Peru Normal school the summers of 1910-12 and entered the University as sophomore in 1913. He was a member of the junior debating team last year. He belongs to Delta Upsilon, Phi Alpha Tau, Phi Delta Phi and the Innocents.

Harold Jacob Schwab, of McCook, member of the senior class in the college of arts and sciences and the first year law class, was graduated from the McCook high school in 1912 in which year he represented the school in the southwestern district contests of the High School Debating league. He was a member of the argumentation and debate seminary in his sophomore year and was fourth member of the team that defeated the University of Iowa on the question of the literacy test restriction of immigration. He is a member of Delta Tau Delta, Phi Alpha Tau, Sigma Delta Chi, Chi Delta Phi, the Innocents and the Kosmet club. He was on the freshman debating team, first lieutenant in the university cadets, was junior managing editor of the Cornhusker and is president of the University Week association, and editor-in-chief of the 1916 Cornhusker.

Chas. Edwin Schofield of Lincoln, junior in the college of arts and sciences, came from the Fort Collins, Colo., high school, where he won inter-literary society debate honors in 1910 and 1911, won honorable mention in the Sons of American Revolution state essay contest in 1911 and was graduated with valedictorian honors in 1912. He belongs to the Palladian society, the Bushnell Guild and the Phillips Brooks club. He was a member of the Y. M. C. A. cabinet last year. He holds membership in the Nebraska conference of the Methodist Episcopal church.

Robert Bennett Waring, of Geneva, junior in the college of law, represented Geneva in the central district contests of the High School Debating league in 1913 and was awarded the state championship of the league at the 1913 state debate. He was awarded first honors in the C. W. Nebraska Teachers' association debate in 1913. He was a member of the Argumentation and debate seminary in 1913 and of the sophomore debating team which won the interclass championship. He holds membership in Silver Lynx, Phi Alpha Tau, Phi Alpha Delta, the World Polity club and the Dramatic club.
