Tobacco Taboo

Chancellor Frank Strong of the University of Kansas has requested all students and faculty members not to use tobacco on the campus. This wish was also expressed at Minnesota, recently.

VENUS 10¢ PENCIL

17 Perfect Degrees
from 6B Softest to 9H Hardest and hard and medium copying

Like a soft-leaded easy marking pencil? Take the higher numbered B's such as 3B, 4B, 5B. For the extreme limit of softness 6B is without an equal and is used by many as being the ideal of all pencils.

Medium degree is HB. H's are the harder grades, 2H or 3H being medium hard, and 6H, etc., being used for thin, clear, fine lines of detailings. Your professors will confirm these statements as to the merits of VENUS pencils.

Note the distinctive VENUS water mark

is beautifully smooth and even in texture. It rubs out pencil marks perfectly. Grav, and does not cause discoloration. 12 sizes from 100 to a box to 4 to a box. Box price $2.00. Venus Erasers are the best erasers.

Nebraska Debaters --- Who They Are

Against Kansas at Lincoln

William F. Heyler, '18, of Edmond, Okla., was graduated from the Central Normal School, Edmond, in 1915. He participated in the annual intersociety debate and the junior-senior debate, and the represented the school in the 1913 debate with the Arkansas State Normal School. He entered Nebraska this fall.

Leonard W. Kline, '19, of Blue Springs, won the championship of the Nebraska high school debating league in 1915. He was president of his high school class. He won membership on the freshman team in the 1916 interclass debate championship series. He is president of the Nebraska branch of the intercollegiate prohibition association. He is a member of the cadet band, the glee club, Bushnell Guild, and the Palladian Literary society.

Chas. E. Schofield, '17, is a graduate of the Fort Collins, Colorado, high school where he represented his society in the intersociety debates in 1910 and 1911. He was poet and valedictorian of his class. He was member of the Y. M. C. A. cabinet in 1914-1915; he belongs to the Palladian society, Bushnell Guild, the Phillips Brooks club, the World Polity club, Phi Alpha Tau, and Delta Sigma Rho, the honorary fraternity for intercollegiate debaters. Last year he represented Nebraska in the debate at Lawrence on the question of increased armament, in which Nebraska was awarded the decision.

D. Gilbert Eldredge, '17, law '18, of Omaha, is a graduate of the Omaha high school (class of '13), winning membership in Sigma Tau Nu, which admits the two highest scholars in each class. He represented Omaha two years in debate (1912-1913), and he was on the junior class team two years. While in the preparatory school of the University of Oregon, he was on the team that met the Seattle high school. Last year he was on the junior class debating team and he won the fourth essay prize awarded by the Geneva Peace League. He belongs to Phi Alpha Tau and Silver Lynx.

Against Kansas at Lawrence

E. Everett Carr, Law '17, of Beaver City, represented that school on its winning team in the Southwestern District contest of the Nebraska high school debating league in 1909 and 1910. He was the most proficient student in the college of law course in the history and system of the common law in 1914-1915, winning the Callaghan and county prize. He is a member of the Cornhusker staff, and of Acacia, Phi Delta Phi, Phi Alpha Tau, and Delta Sigma Rho, the honorary fraternity for intercollegiate debaters. He was on the team which defeated Kansas at Lincoln last December on the question of increased armament.

Robert B. Waring, '17, law '17, of Geneva, won the championship of the Nebraska high school debating league in 1913, after having taken first honors in the debating contest of the Central Nebraska Teachers' association in 1912. He was editor of the Geneva High School Journal. He was member of the Intercollegiate Seminary in 1913 and was fourth member of the negative team against Kansas last year. He was on the sophomore team that won the interclass championship of the University in 1914. He was member of the junior play cast. He belongs to the Dramatic club, the World Polity club, Phi Alpha Tau, and Silver Lynx.

C. Ivan Winslow, '18, of Beaver City, was graduated from that high school in 1911, in which year he represented it in the Nebraska high school debating league. He was on the Peru state normal team that debated with the Wayne normal school in 1913 and took third debate honors at Peru in 1914.

Charles M. Frey, '17, law '19, of Lincoln, was graduated from the Sterling high school in 1913. He represented the school in 1913 contests of the Nebraska high school debating league. He is a member of the Union Literary society and of the Cosmus club. He was a member of The Daily Nebraskan staff in his sophomore year; was managing editor of the Cornhusker last year, and is the editor-in-chief this year.

DR. N. B. BARR, '93

SECURES NEW HOME FOR OLIVET INSTITUTE

The Olivet Institute of Chicago, of which Dr. Norman B. Barr, '93, has been superintendent for the past twenty years, will build a new $250,000 community building, next spring.

This institute at present consists of fourteen buildings. It is one of the great social centers on the northwest side of Chicago. More than 10,000 persons visit the institution for education, assistance in various matters and advice each year.

James J. Sayer, '93, connected with the Portland Association of Building Owners and Managers, in writing the alumni office of what Dr. Barr has done, says: "I well remember his beginning in a mediocre house in an indifferent neighborhood. The task has been herculean."
